

COST Action IS1005
Medioevo EuropeoCENDARI
COLLABORATIVE EUROPEAN DIGITAL
ARCHIVE INFRASTRUCTURE

Medieval Scholarly Research and the Digital Ecosystem.

Challenges and Goals around the TRAME project

Florence, 20-22 March, 2014

20 March, 14.30 - 19.00

14.30 Agostino Paravicini Bagliani (SISMEL Firenze) Welcome

Digital Ecosystem and New Needs for Scholarly Research on Medieval Manuscripts, Authors and Texts
Chair: Francesco Santi (SISMEL/Università di Cassino)

14.40 Lino Leonardi (Università di Siena/FEF) Improving the Medieval Digital Ecosystem fostering interoperability and collaboration: the TRAME project

15.00 Rosa Caffo (ICCU Roma) Digital Collections of Medieval Manuscripts in Italian Libraries

15.20 Louise Edwards (The European Library Programme, The Hague) Digital Collections of Medieval Manuscripts in European Libraries

15.40 Claudio Giunta (Università di Trento) What we need beyond manuscripts' images: the point of view of Medieval Literatures

16.00 - 16.30 Coffee break

16.30 Dot Porter (University of Pennsylvania) & Emiliano Degl'Innocenti (SISMEL/FEF) Develop a global network of Digital Medieval Projects: TRAME and MESA

17.00 Emiliano Degl'Innocenti (SISMEL/FEF) & Matthieu Bonicel (BnF/Biblissima, Paris) Develop a global network of Digital Medieval Projects: TRAME and BIBLISSIMA

17.30 Discussion

Selected discussants: Paul Bertrand (UCL Louvain-la-Neuve/Scriptorium), Teresa De Robertis (Università di Firenze), Roberto Gamberini (SISMEL Firenze), Simon Gaunt (King's College London), Maria Letizia Sebastiani (BNCF Firenze), Anne-Marie Turcan-Verkerk (EPHE/Biblissima, Paris)

21 March, 9.00 - 13.00

Extending the TRAME concept within the CENDARI research infrastructure

Chair: Jennifer Edmond (TCD Dublin)

9.00 Extending TRAME from the technical point of view

Semantics: Tai Wei (TCD Dublin)

Services integration: Natasa Bulatovic (Max Plank Digital Library)

9.40 Extending TRAME: A digital tool for scholarly research

Emiliano Degl'Innocenti (SISMEL/FEF; Cendari Prototype coordinator)

10.00 Extending TRAME: Virtual research environment and enhanced research publications

Sheila Anderson (King's College, London)

10.20 Discussion

Selected discussants: Vladimir Alexiev (Ontotext), Cyril Masset (IRHT Paris/Biblissima), Christian Emil Ore (University of Oslo), Dot Porter (University of Pennsylvania)

11.00 - 11.30 Coffee break

11.30 Roundtable: National and European Digital Agenda

Coordinator: Lino Leonardi (FEF/Università di Siena)

Invited speakers: Nicole Bériou (IRHT Paris), Rosa Caffo (ICCU Roma), Franco De Vivo (Università di Cassino), Jennifer Edmond (CENDARI project), Antonio Lamarra (ILIESI, CNR), Carmine Marinucci (AICI), Flavia Piccoli Nardelli (Italian Senate member), Laurent Romary (Dariah.eu), Chiara Silla (Regione Toscana), Roberto Viola (DG Connect)

13.30 – 14.30 Lunch

21 March, 14.30 - 19.00 and 22 March, 9.30 - 12.30

Developing TRAME towards a Digital Infrastructure for Scholarly Research on Medieval Culture

in collaboration with CENDARI, COST Action IS1005 and DARIAH.IT

Working sessions open to COST Action Members

Chair: Agostino Paravicini Bagliani (SISMEL Firenze)

Three working sessions to define the principles and characteristics of a digital infrastructure for research on medieval manuscripts, authors and texts using TRAME, focusing on EINFRA (9-2015), INFRADEV (4-2014/2015), REFLECTIVE (6-2015) and REFLECTIVE (7-2014) European Calls.

1. A vision for TRAME

Speakers: Lino Leonardi (FEF/Università di Siena), Nicole Bériou (IRHT Paris), Jennifer Edmond (TCD Dublin), Christian Emil Ore (University of Oslo), Francesco Santi (SISMEL/Università di Cassino), Paul Bertrand (UCL Louvain-la-Neuve/Scriptorium)

2. TRAME in the European Infrastructure Programs

Speakers: Laurent Romary (Dariah.eu), Vladimir Alexiev (Ontotext), Vania Virgili (Dariah.it), Emiliano Degl'Innocenti (SISMEL/FEF)

3. Roadmap for an application (network, activities, workpackages, deliverables)