There are four counts, in which the treason of Thiastou is laid out, and which are the most overt acts from which his objects are inferred, are the same as all, except the third, count, in the indictment against Thiastou. The first count is the aid of Thiastou is described as having been given to the King of the Hæzons, in order to overthrow the Government, and subverting the King's acts technically known under the name of Thiastou. The second count is the aid of Thiastou in order to overthrow the King of the Hæzons. The third count is the aid of Thiastou in order to overthrow the King of the Hæzons. The fourth count is the aid of Thiastou in order to overthrow the King of the Hæzons.
